Carnegie Investment Counsel Named to 2015 Financial Times 300 Top Registered Investment Advisers

June 18, 2015 – Carnegie Investment Counsel is pleased to announce that it has been named to the Financial Times 300 Top Registered Investment Advisers, as of June 18, 2015. The list recognizes top independent RIA firms from across the U.S.

This is the second annual FT 300 list, produced independently by the FT in collaboration with Ignites Research, a subsidiary of the FT that provides business intelligence on the investment management industry. More than 2,000 elite RIA firms were invited to apply for consideration, based on their assets under management (AUM). The RIA firms that applied were then graded six criteria: AUM; AUM growth rate; years in existence; advanced industry credentials; online accessibility; and compliance records. This is Carnegie's second year to be named to this elite list.

The "average" FT 300 firm has been in existence for 23 years and manages $2.6 billion in assets. Headquartered in Pepper Pike, Ohio, Carnegie has roots going back to 1974, and now manages $1.1 billion as of 03/31/2015.

The 300 top RIAs hail from 34 states and Washington, D.C., and, on average, saw their total AUM rise by 18% in 2014. "We are excited to once again be recognized as one of the Financial Times top RIAs. We continue to experience strong growth and expect that growth to accelerate over the next several years," said Richard Alt, Principal/Chief Investment Officer.
